As American as Backyard Barbecues — Crystal's American Classic Buffet

American cuisine reflects the diverse nature of the country's mixed ethnicity, regionalism and unique ingredients. As difficult as it is to define the "typical American," it is equally challenging to generalize about its foods. There are so many...

The key to American cooking lies in its immigrants, its ingredients and its imagination. Ultimately, American cuisine is immigrant cooking, just as America is ultimately a nation of immigrants: diverse yet united. A blend of peoples from Europe, Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Caribbean, America has created the culinary heritage of its ethnic subcultures by combining old world techniques with new world ingredients. The result is evidenced by Crystal Cruises' innovative buffet: the American Classic.

Soup or Salad?

Our new nation's cultural diversity is also reflected in Crystal's friendly culinary staff from more than thirty other nations. Dressed in traditional American blue denim, the servers greet guests at the Lido Café entrance. They can assist you at the soup station, where the kettles are full of appetizing Cajun Seafood Gumbo or Chilled Cucumber Soup. The American "soup and salad" offerings continue with Crisp Coleslaw, Mixed California Greens, traditional Waldorf Salad, Carrot Raisin Salad and of course, the popular All-American Potato Salad.

Hot Entrées

America is famous for its backyard barbecues. We feature classic American favorites: the tender and juicy Baby Back Ribs and Barbecued Beef Ribs are as tempting as the Herb Marinated Chicken Breasts and the Blackened Fresh Fish. Don't forget the ketchup, mustard, or barbecue sauce! No barbecue is complete without Southern Fried Chicken and Summer Pasta Salad.

From mother's kitchen to America's great restaurants, main courses are more an expression of truly American Classic cuisine than almost any other dish. Our hot food counter offers more mouth-watering selections including Roasted North American Beef, Southern Chicken Pot Pies, Roast Turkey, New Orleans Jambalaya and Braised Cabbage. And no American feast would be complete without Baked Potatoes, Wild Rice, Sweet Potato Casserole, Crispy Fried Onion Rings, Boston Baked

Beans and Texas-Style Chili con Carne. Vegetarians will be delighted by the All-American choices including Okra Fritters, Roasted Autumn Vegetables and of course, good-old Corn on the Cob.

Southern Hospitality and L.A.'s Favorite Salad

Although the South is already well represented in our many offerings, we couldn't call it a Classic American buffet if we didn't include Southern Seafood with Cajun favorite: Jumbo Shrimp with Creole Tartar Sauce.

The origin of Cobb Salad is as hotly debated as is the Caesar Salad, but Los Angeles lays claim to the former and our American buffet offers a meal in itself with all the fixings for a colorful Cobb: Grilled Chicken, California Avocados, Hard-Boiled Eggs, Tomatoes, Blue Cheese, Celery, Crisp Lettuce, Freshly Cooked Bacon Bits, Chives and traditional Cobb Dressing. Irresistible!

Breads and Beverages

As diverse as America herself, our selection of breads reflects America's great cultural diversity: San Francisco Sourdough, Boston Brown Bread, Southern Corn Bread, Sticky Cinnamon Buns, New Mexico Flour Tortillas and Bagels.

Refreshing drinks are abundant and truly American: California white and red wines, classic cocktails like the Mai Tai, Margarita, Long Island Iced Tea and Frozen Daiquiri, along with non-alcoholic favorites like smoothies and soda pop. And what's more American than an ice-cold beer?

Save Room for Dessert

Traditional end-of-meal delicacies have become American favorites; in a dessert display designed to tempt even the most diet-conscious, you'll find these delicious choices: Chocolate Turtle Cake, Grandma's Bourbon Bread Pudding, New York Cheesecake, New Orleans Pecan Fudge, Macadamia Brownies, and Apple Crumble Tarts as well as other sweet temptations.

Join us for this splendid luncheon buffet, today from 12 Noon to 1:30pm in the Lido Café, Lido Deck 11.
